

CHANG QI-YANG

d +65 6517 3754
f +65 6532 5722
e qiyang.chang@wongpartnership.com

QUALIFICATIONS

National University of Singapore (LL.B., Hons.)

ADMISSIONS

Singapore Bar

PROFILE

CHANG Qi-Yang is a Partner in the Commercial & Corporate Disputes Practice.

His main areas of practice are commercial and corporate disputes, employment and international arbitration.

Qi-Yang regularly advises on a broad range of legal issues, including commercial and contractual disputes, shareholder disputes, defamation, workplace safety and health investigations and all aspects of employment law.

Qi-Yang graduated from the National University of Singapore, where he was also awarded the Koh Han Kok Book Prize. He was admitted to the Singapore Bar in 2011.

Relevant Experience:

Matters of significance in which Qi-Yang has been involved in include the following:

- Acted as counsel for one of the most prominent private equity firms in Asia in respect of an employment termination and carried interest claim in excess of US$75 million.
- Acted successfully as lead counsel in an international arbitration for a Chinese steel company against one of the largest listed steel conglomerates in India to enforce payment which was intercepted by a third party fraudster.
- Acted successfully for the incoming master tenants and management at the former Bukit Timah Turf Club to prove a conspiracy by the outgoing master tenants to injure their business.
- Acted as lead counsel in a shareholders' dispute involving the company which produced the "The LKY Musical".

- Acted for Singapore Press Holdings Limited in a copyright infringement action involving a controversial Singapore website known as "The Real Singapore".
- Regularly advising large multinational employers on labour disputes, trade union agreements, internal and regulatory investigations.

Related Practices

- Commercial & Corporate Disputes

Publications & Legal Updates:

- The inaugural Randstad Workpocket Singapore (2015/16) and Workpocket 2018/2019, a collaboration between Randstad, WongPartnership LLP, the Association for Small and Medium Enterprises and the Singapore Human Resources Initiative.
- Global Legal Insights, Employment & Labour Law, 2019 – 7th Edition, Singapore