PROFILE

Deya is a Partner in the Energy, Projects and Construction Practice.

Deya's main areas of practice are litigation and arbitration. The focus of Deya's practice is on disputes relating to projects across various industries, including energy, public infrastructure, environmental engineering, air industry technology, and construction. In addition, Deya routinely handles criminal and regulatory matters before the Singapore courts.

Deya graduated from Singapore Management University and is admitted to the Singapore Bar. During his time in university, Deya was part of the team that represented Singapore Management University in the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot in 2013 and 2014, earning honourable mention prizes for oral rounds and memorials.

Outside of his legal practice, Deya has, since 2015, been coaching the teams from Singapore Management University in the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moots.

Deya was also the winner of the cross-examination segment of the Remote Oral Advocacy Programme 2021 organised by Delos Dispute Resolution, before a panel consisting of Mr Michael Hwang SC, Mr Toby Landau QC, and Ms Chiann Bao.
