

ALESSA PANG

d +65 6416 8107
f +65 6532 5722
e alessa.pang@wongpartnership.com

QUALIFICATIONS

National University of Singapore (LL.B. Hons.)

ADMISSIONS

Singapore Bar

PROFILE

Alessa PANG is a Partner in the Commercial & Corporate Disputes Practice.

Alessa's main area of practice is in international arbitration and litigation. She handles a wide range of cross-border commercial disputes before international arbitral tribunals, as well as before the Singapore courts. She has acted for clients in ad hoc and institutional arbitration proceedings under SIAC, ICC, LCIA, HKIAC, UNCITRAL and ICSID Rules.

In addition to her international arbitration practice, Alessa also has extensive experience in arbitration-related court proceedings. She has acted for clients in setting aside proceedings, applications for anti-suit injunctions and other court applications arising out of ongoing arbitration proceedings. In addition to counsel work, Alessa also sits as an arbitrator.

In 2020, Alessa spent two months on secondment to a Philippine law firm, where she assisted with Philippine-seated arbitration proceedings and advised clients on disputes arising from infrastructure projects in the Philippines.

Alessa was the appointed Regional Representative for the South Asia Chapter of the ICC Young Arbitrators Forum (YAF) for the 2019 to 2021 mandate. Alessa is also a tutor for the Arbitration module for the SILE Part B Bar Examinations Course.

Alessa graduated from the National University of Singapore and is admitted to the Singapore Bar.

Relevant experience:

Matters of significance which Alessa has advised or acted for include the following:

- An African parastatal body in Mauritius-seated SIAC arbitration proceedings. The dispute arose out of an affreightment contract which was governed by Mauritius law.

- A Philippine conglomerate in the hospitality industry in SIAC arbitration proceedings. The dispute arose out of a share sale purchase agreement governed by Thai law.
- The owner / operator of a data centre in London-seated LCIA arbitration proceedings against the design and build contractor. Irish law was the governing law of the contract.
- The government of an African state in an application to set aside an investment arbitration award before the Singapore courts.
- A Chinese construction entity in an application to set aside an ICC arbitration award before the Singapore courts.

Related Practices

- Commercial & Corporate Disputes

Publications & Legal Updates:

- International Arbitration: Trends and Developments in Singapore, Chambers and Partners, 2021
- The International Arbitration Review (7th and 8th editions) – Singapore chapter
- Anti-Suit Injunction in Aid of Arbitration Proceedings: Principles and Practice, Singapore Law Gazette, July 2015

Awards & Accolades:

Alessa has been described by clients in Legal 500 as a "very strong litigator with a great ability to assimilate detail and reframe it for the fight". Legal 500 also says that Alessa "readily masters the detail of even the most complex disputes".