PROFILE

WONG Meng Meng, Senior Counsel, founded WongPartnership in 1992, and the Firm ranks amongst the top law firms in Singapore today. Meng Meng retired from the Partnership in 2006, but remains with the Firm as Founder-Consultant, a position that aptly acknowledges his role as the man who, in the words of The Straits Times in its 16 December 2006 article, "set up a law firm that achieved a meteoric rise to prominence."

Meng Meng's current appointments and memberships include the following: Member, Competition Appeals Board; Member, Singapore Mediation Centre's Advisory Board; Chairman, Mapletree Industrial Trust; Advisor, Singapore Standards Council, Coordinating Committee for the Silver Industry; Member of the Governing Council, Singapore Business Advisors and Consultants Council; Member of the Panel of Arbitrators, Singapore International Arbitration Centre; Law Society of Singapore's Claims Panel of Advisors, Lockton Companies (Singapore) Pte Ltd. His past appointments and memberships include the following: President, Law Society of Singapore; Vice-President, Singapore Academy of Law; Member, Quality Assurance For University (QAFU) Panel; Member, Military Court of Appeal; Member, NUS Law Faculty's Advisory Board/Council; Member, Advisory Committee of SIAC; Member, NIE International Board of Directors; Director, Mapletree Investments Pte Ltd.

Awards & Accolades:

Meng Meng was awarded the Public Service Medal (PBM) in 2001.

While in active practice, Meng Meng was consistently acknowledged as one of the world's leading lawyers in leading directories such as The International Who's Who of Commercial Litigators, PLC Cross-border Dispute Resolution: Arbitration Handbook, The International Who's Who of Construction Lawyers, Euromoney Legal Media Group and Legal 500: Asia Pacific. As recently as September 2018, The Straits Times described him as one of several lawyers who have "inspired generations of lawyers".
